

ROSA PARSLOE

Calligraphy Workshop on Saturday 21st October 2017

9.45am to 4.00 pm

Rockwell Green Village Hall, Rockwell Green, Wellington TA21 9BU

Come and enjoy learning about and using sharpened italic

It is a variable of Italic and has many expressive possibilities to explore.

*THE STORM
BREAKS* driving rain falls in sheets obscuring the
DISTANT LANDSCAPE

In the morning you will learn, (recall) the basic structure of the hand, develop it using a variety of nibs producing varied weight and size. It is as it says sharp and spiky, suitable for a ruling pen too! You will decide which pens you like to use for the avenue you choose to pursue, a combination of different pens can produce dramatic effects.

Equipment needed:

Usual calligraphy equipment:

Nibs, varied including Ruling pens to use with ink and gouache, bleed proof white.

Papers of your choice, black, dark colour if you feel winter magic coming on.

Haikus, Quotes, Dramatic Words/Phrases they determine which pens, colours, and paper you use for the text and the media must blend.

I WILL HAVE A VARIETY OF ALL THE MATERIALS FOR YOU TO USE, so don't panic buying etc.

The day will be relaxed, bring an open mind and your dedicated enthusiasm.

To book please telephone Janet Brown on 01460 66462

or email dumpling8@tiscali.co.uk as soon as possible

Find us at www.westcountryscribes.co.uk